THE LOCATION

Douro Place is a quiet and secluded nineteenth-century cul-de-sac immediately off Victoria Road, one of Kensington's most prestigious residential streets. The surrounding area has an attractive and architecturally varied mix of handsome nineteenth-century houses and later inter-war and post-war buildings, while Victoria Road itself has long been regarded as one of London's most exclusive residential addresses and is also home to a number of diplomatic residences.

The property is within easy walking distance of Kensington High Street and Gloucester Road, both offering an excellent range of shops, restaurants and cafés, while Kensington Gardens/Hyde Park is also a short walk away. High Street Kensington Underground station provides District and Circle line services, with convenient road connections westwards and to Heathrow Airport via the M4

THE PROPERTY

A newly refurbished one-bedroom apartment arranged over the lower ground floor of this distinctive building on Douro Place. The property has been comprehensively refurbished to a high standard, combining clean contemporary finishes with elements of the building's original character.

The accommodation is centred around a spacious open-plan kitchen and reception room, with the newly fitted kitchen arranged neatly to one end and a Chesney's fireplace providing a focal point to the reception area. Parquet-style flooring runs throughout the principal living accommodation, complemented by new double-glazed windows retaining the original Crittall-style design.

The well-proportioned bedroom benefits from a newly fitted en-suite shower room, finished with marble-effect tiling, a large walk-in shower and contemporary fittings. A substantial separate storage room provides particularly useful additional space.

The refurbishment has also included new central heating and electrical installations, extensive insulation and good-quality integrated kitchen appliances, providing a comfortable and well-appointed home in this quiet Kensington location.
